NASHVILLE, TN (August 1, 2011) - Puckett's is proud to announce they will be serving up some of their best menu items at this year's Tennessee Titans Training Camp. The restaurant will serve breakfast, appetizers, dinner, and drinks to staff and sponsors including 104.5 The Zone, Titans Radio and 103.3 WKDF. The Zone will be airing exclusive coverage of the camp, which began Sunday July 31st and will run until August 23rd.

Presenting everything from cherry smoked baby back ribs to southern fried chicken, Puckett's owner Andy Marshall says he is looking forward to bringing some local flavor to this year's event. "We are so proud to see our Titans back to work. We look forward to watching the team practice while we serve the staff at the Titans Radio Network and affiliated stations from their sponsor's tent."

Once again the Titans will conduct training camp practices at Baptist Sports Park, where the vast majority of the team's camps have been conducted since the team moved to Tennessee in 1997. Fans are invited to attend during the four-week camp free of charge. It is the only time of the year that practices are open to the general public.

ABOUT PUCKETT'S GROCERY & RESTAURANT

Founded by the Puckett family in the 1950s, Puckett's has served as a country store to several communities in Williamson County. Andy Marshall bought the Leiper's Fork Puckett's Grocery in 1998. In 2002, Puckett's branched out to start a formal dinner and music program. With all of the talented writers in and around town, the Friday night writers' show grew fast with people coming from all over to hear some of the finest the industry had to offer. Shortly after, the Marshall's expanded to Historic Downtown Franklin. Rob Robinson and his family now own the Leiper's Fork location, while the Marshall family opened the first downtown Nashville location in November 2010.
